Seaman Rural High School
North Topeka, Kansas

FOREWORD . . .

As the graduation breezes blow the reflecting ripples of time backward, we see our treasured moments of memory mirrored in the swift-moving current of life.

Freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors are joined in an everlasting devotion to Seaman High. We have witnessed many worldly events: man hurling his efforts toward the heavens, touchy conferences at Geneva, and vigorous political campaigns. Yes, the world is full of obstacles, with many things undiscovered, unsought, and waiting for their debut.

But at Seaman, busy students fill the halls as lessons are discussed, jokes told, and last minute reviews are made of test material. A hush falls as the final bell rings for all Vikings to resume their daily activities.

Our teachers will never be forgotten; in future years, their judgment becomes our judgment.

One individual, whose friendly advice always strikes home, will always be remembered; the graduating classes will long recall the personal interest which Principal Charles D. Logan has shown during their school years and after graduation.

As we peer through the ripples of unforgettable memories, may you each hold vivid remembrances of these younger years of life.

MONEY INTEREST DRAWS STUDENT INTEREST

Opportunities to discover the value of money draws the financial interest of Seaman students to help operate the school bank. After purchasing stock at a dollar a share, a student is eligible to become a teller.

Not only does the bank teach wise handling of money, but its services are available to all clubs, organizations, and personal accounts.

The amount of money handled since 1927 has increased from an original $3000 to approximately $43,000 this year. The Seaman Bank operates through the Kaw Valley Citizens State Bank.

Christmas At Seaman

A time never-to-be forgotten by all Seamanites
....A time of gift-giving, caroling, good cheer, and rejoicing....A time during which we all worked together to help, in our small way, build stronger world fellowship.

May this Star remind you of the eternal message of Christmas and all its meanings. "Peace On Earth, Good Will Toward Men."

Homecoming Royalty . . .

Homecoming Queen Jane Nowlan was crowned by King Ronnie Saia, and was presented with a bouquet of long-stemmed red roses by Pep Club President Jeaneane Frey. Jane and her attendants, Jan Strimple and Susan Whiteman, were chosen by the football squad. The radiant beauty of the three royal young ladies surpassed by far the red carnation corsages they wore.

... A Thrilling Evening

Ronnie Saia was crowned Homecoming King by Queen Jane Nowlan during the half-time festivities at the Seaman-Atchison game, November 5, 1958. Ronnie and his attendants, Bob Cogswell and John Cummings, were chosen by the Pep Club.

CHAMPIONS IN ACTION

GLORY!
GLORY! GLORY!
No, it's not all glory!

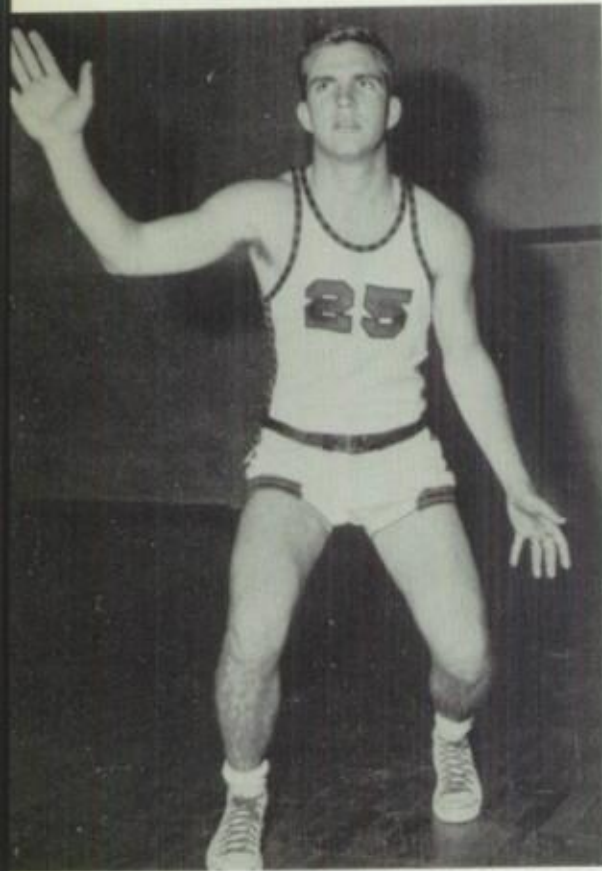

The picture the fans see is a glorified finale of weeks, hours, and minutes of sweat, dirt, mud, and tortured muscles. Rigorous trials, tests, and hours of strenuous tactics are ground into the team. From those who survive the first two weeks of practice, the dauntless Viking squads are selected.

Victory-minded Vikings, under the guidance of Coach Bernie Bierman, master of the "Hidden-ball---Single wing" attack, this year posted a 7-2 won-lost record. Each victory resounded through the stands as the thundering cleats of the menacing Vikes racked up 2,133 rushing yards.

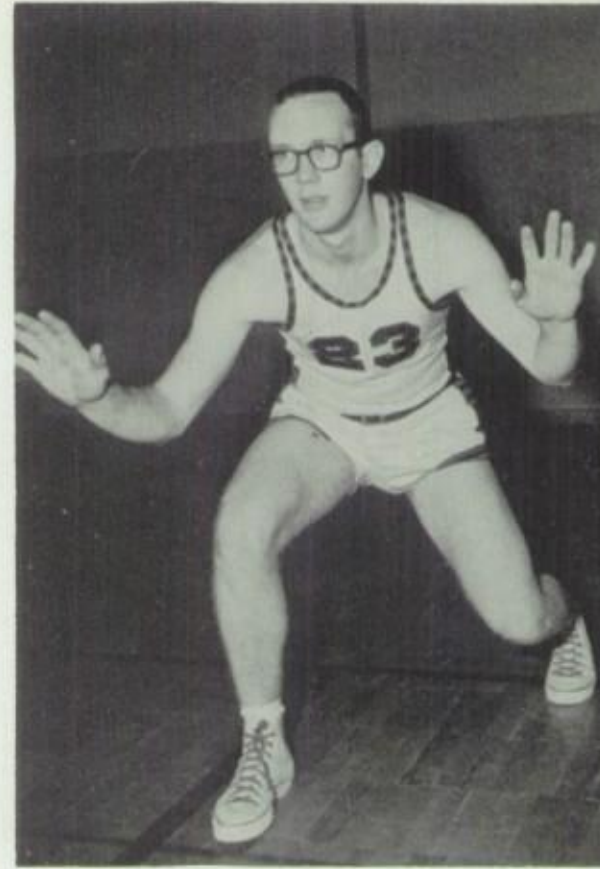

This season was the fourth straight year that Seaman has won or shared the Jayhawk League Championship. Each victory, each championship, would be lost if it had not been for the DESIRE and loyalty to each other, to "Dear old Seaman," and most vital to-----OUR-----coach, BERNIE BIERMAN.

INEXPERIENCED VIKING FIVE GAIN RUNNER-UP SPOT-----

A hustling Seaman basketball squad, under the coaching of Gerald Haney, playing the toughest schedule in recent years, gained experience as the season rolled along and were in the thick of the Jayhawk League Championship fight until the final two games.

An ice-cold shooting night against Wamego lost the chance for a tie for first, and the Vikes ended in a tie for the runner-up spot with Wamego.

The loss of five seniors from this year's squad will leave important positions to fill for the returning squad. Our outlook for the coming year will remain optimistic.

Day-By-Day Experiences . . . Tomorrow's Memories

OUR FOUR YEARS AT SEAMAN

It all began with 108 timid freshmen "venturing into the unknown." Chosen to represent these youthful scholars were: Phil Morse, president; Marilyn Burns, vice president; Phil McCain, secretary; and Joan Harper, treasurer. Lending a guiding hand were Miss Marvel Cox and Mr. Marvin Smith, as sponsors. The year's entertainment included a skating party, and a Bum Party, which provided a casual atmosphere for the "younger set."

As we "reached firmer ground" in our sophomore year, we began to realize that "Footprints in the sands of time are not made by sitting down." The class officers, Ron Saia, president; Bob Cogswell, vice president; Jan Strimple, secretary; and Jane Nowlan, treasurer, planned two fun-filled parties: a hayrack ride with a sock-hop afterward in the gym, and a picnic at Lake Shawnee. Assisting the officers this year were Mr. "Bernie" Bierman and Mr. Lawrence Freel. We were ready to burst with enthusiasm as we prepared to tackle another year of this fascinating adventure in education.

Becoming juniors, we reviewed "past accomplishments," and looked forward to "future challenges." We became aware of sifting time, and set our pace a little faster to reach the goal of higher learning. Dave Whiteman, president; Ron Saia, vice president; Larry Mitchell, secretary; and John Cummings, treasurer, were elected to oversee our pleasures and business. Helping our leaders were Mrs. Hazel Gooch and Mr. Marvin Smith. This year was filled so full of exciting events, and worthwhile learning, that we hardly had time for playful antics. The high lights of this year were the Junior-Senior Prom, selecting class rings, and our class dance and picnic. As our junior year came to a close, we realized we were on the last leg of our high-school journey.

Our senior year was an exceptionally busy one; we all joined in the gay activities to help cover up the bit of sadness we felt. Phil Morse, president; Jan Strimple, vice president; Jane Nowlan, secretary; and John Cummings, treasurer, chosen as officers for our last year, held much responsibility, for they chose caps and gowns, graduation announcements, planned parties, and organized a class reunion which will be held in May, 1964. Looking forward to the future with us were our sponsors, Miss Dora Wilson, and Mr. Bruce Frederick, with Mr. Harold Nachtigall assisting. Our last class get-together consisted of a fabulous Sneak Day in Wichita and a picnic at Lake Shawnee. Then came Baccalaureate, then Commencement, and the end of a wonderful senior year, one never to be forgotten.
